PROJECT(S)

Managing Fraud information Propagation in Mobile social networks

HTML|CSS|JS|MYSQL

The proposed system for managing fraud information in mobile social media networks offers a scalable, real-time solution to combat misinformation, scams, and fraudulent activities. By integrating advanced machine learning and NLP techniques, the system not only improves fraud detection accuracy but also ensures a safer and more reliable user experience across social platforms. The system's proactive approach is expected to significantly enhance user trust and platform integrity.
